1. Get the Brand along with products associated with it.
2. List all the product names whose list price is greater than sales price
3. Count the number of product names whose list price is greater than sales price
4. List all the products belong to a "women" category.
5. List the products which are not available.
6. Count the number of products which are available.
7. List the products that are made up of Nylon.